Ecosystem Applications

What is the purpose of the Gpaws Ecosystem?

- The Gpaws ecosystem aims to support animals in need and make it easier for people who want to help. In line with this goal, animals can be supported through the Gpaws token and help organizations operating in this field.
- The ecosystem aims to build community by providing a platform for animal lovers to exchange ideas. In this way, it aims to enable animal lovers and charities to work more effectively.

GPAWS: Animal Rescue

GPAWS: Animal Rescue is a mobile app designed to deliver aid from philanthropists to stray animals. This app has been developed to make it easier for users to help stray animals and to provide support to these animals. GPAWS: Animal Rescue plays an important role as a platform that enables animal lovers and philanthropists to come together and support stray animals.

App content:

- Emergency Aid for Stray Animals
- Suspended Food
- Street Animal Rights Representative System
- Suspended Clinic
- Product Sales

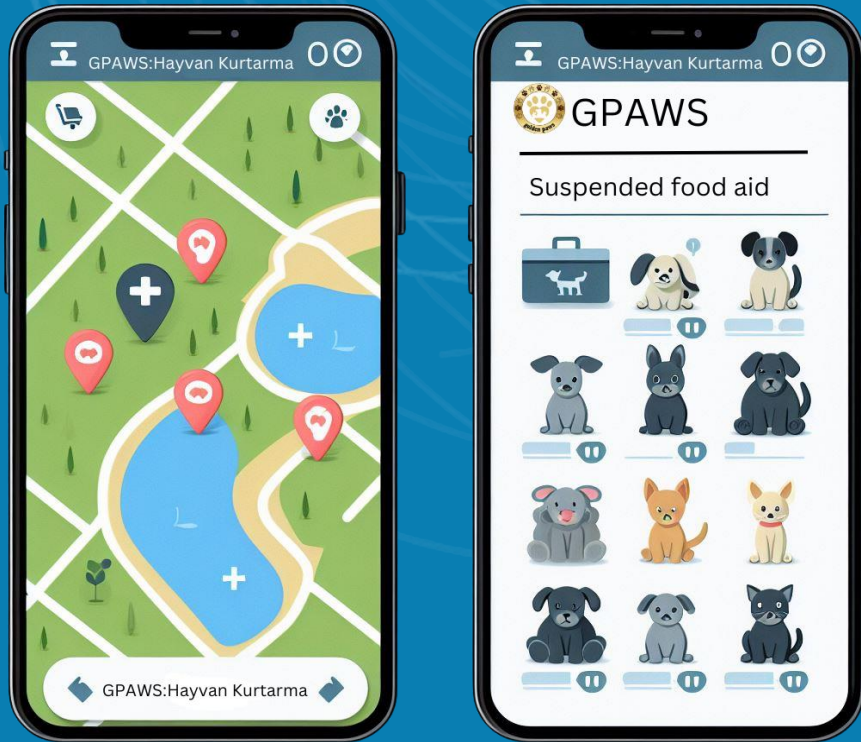

Emergency Aid to Stray Animals: When stray animals need urgent help, the relevant officer can be reached through the application and ensures that those in need of help are intervened quickly and immediately. The officer sees where the animal in need of help is on the map, reaches it and makes the necessary intervention.

Suspended Food: It enables benefactors who want to meet the food needs of our lovely friends to provide food aid in the easiest way.

Stray Animal Rights Representative System: Representatives monitor the situation of stray animals in certain areas, determine their needs and ensure that the necessary aid is delivered. In addition, it strives to protect the rights of stray animals and make them live more comfortably. These representatives, who are appointed as provinces and districts, protect our friends on the streets.

Suspended Clinic: It enables benefactors who want to meet the clinical needs of our lovely friends to provide clinical assistance in the easiest way.

Merch sales: Generous people who want to support Gpaws can purchase Gpaws-approved items such as Gpaws-approved t-shirts, hats, mug cups, pet clothes, pet toys, pet food through the app. These proceeds will contribute to Gpaws' buyback program.
